

The One with the Rad Tech Mad Libs

Mad Libs: A Day in the Life of a Rad Tech

Ring ring! It's (TIME) and it's time to get ready to head to work. I just know I am going to have a/n (ADJECTIVE) day – the radiologist, Dr. (FAMOUS PERSON'S NAME), has already been texting me about the (NUMBER) patients I will be seeing today. But first, I need to drink my (NAME OF A DRINK) and eat my (FOOD). On my way to work, I jam out to (NAME OF A SONG) and it puts me in the best mood to tackle the day. Once I get to work, I see my first patient. I ask them to change into a/n (ARTICLE OF CLOTHING) and explain we will be taking an X-ray of their (BODY PART). You should have seen the look on their face! The patient immediately started (VERB) and I called for backup. It only took (NUMBER) rad tech(s) to help, but we finally got the X-ray done. When we were all done, the patient said what a(n) (ADJECTIVE) job we did and thanked us for a job well done. Phew, what a way to start the day. You never know what the day in the life of a rad tech will look like!
